

I am opposed to the proposed changes in limiting the number of media outlets one group can control. This would be another example of corporations gaining unfair political treatment from 'sympathetic' politicians, at the expense of the American public. Do not change this rule!! Control of the media means control of the political agenda. This is too important to error on the side of corporate and political sentiment.